SCHOOL REPORT.

---

We respectfully submit for your inspection the following report of schools in the town of Madison for the year ending March 1st, 1889:

SCHOOL No. 1.

First term taught by H. T. Hodgkins. Mr. Hodgkins is a teacher of long experience, order in the schoolroom, first class, and his school was most satisfactory.

Second term taught by A. S. Bolster. Mr. Bolster is a teacher just starting, order good, and the scholars made good improvement in their studies.

Third term taught by Frank L. Cook. Mr. Cook has long been before the public as a teacher. The order the first few weeks was not just as we would like, otherwise the results are most flattering.

SCHOOL No. 2.

First term taught by Mrs. Fannie F. Knowles. Mrs. Knowles is a very successful teacher, order good, and the scholars made good advancement in their studies.

Second term taught by Mrs. Emma J. Long. Mrs. Long is one of our best teachers, and the results are all that we could desire.

SCHOOL No. 3.

First term taught by Miss Minnie E. Kenerson. This was her first school, the result satisfactory to all.

SCHOOL No. 4.

First term taught by Mrs. Annie Towle. Mrs. Towle is a teacher of long experience, took great interest in the school, and the advancement made was good.

Second term taught by A. S. Bolster. Mr. Bolster took much interest in this school, and gave the best of satisfaction.

SCHOOL No. 5.

This school was commenced by John Brooks, but on account of sickness he was obliged to give it up. Owen Alley took his place. Order was good, and the advancement made by the school speaks well for Mr. Alley.

SCHOOL No. 6.

First term taught by Leslie R. Ambrose. As a teacher he gave the best of satisfaction, and the scholars made good progress.

Second term taught by Miss M. A. Hobbs. The order was not what we would desire, and the improvement was not such as we hoped.

SCHOOL No. 7.

First and second terms taught by Miss Annie E. Kenerson. This was her first school, and her services were most successful.

SCHOOL No. 8.

First term taught by Miss Nora B. Allard. Miss Allard is a successful teacher, and the improvement made in this school was good.

We wish to call particular attention to the fact that our schoolhouses are in a bad condition, a disgrace to our scholars and the town. And we would ask that at an early day the voters would take under consideration the matter of making some improvement, raising a sum of money, choose agents to expend the same, and begin at the foundation, and make the needy repairs. We have the past year expended a small amount on those most in need, but have thought it a waste of money to expend only just enough to make the houses tight and comfortable.
